Your Next Steps to an Exceptional First Year

A guide for students completing New Student Orientation at The Ohio State University at Marion.

Access to Orientation is only available to students who have been admitted and paid the $100 acceptance fee.

1 Register for on-Campus Orientation

(see step 2 for items you must complete before orientation and plan accordingly)

Orientations will take place on December 4 & 18. Buckeye Registration Rally, a drop in event for students unable to attend orientation, will occur on January 4.

- From your applicant center, select "Orientation Information" to register. Select the earliest date you can attend for the most variety of course selection.

2 Complete online Components

Items become available now through the start of spring semester – All items listed below must be completed by Monday of the week prior to your scheduled orientation.

- Complete "To Do List" items found on the right side of your Buckeye Link account. Some items are available now. Some will be added leading up to the start of the semester.
- Schedule and attend a course planning zoom session with an academic advisor – your support persons (parents/others) are invited to join this session. Learn the requirements for your major, share your course schedule goals and limitations, review any credits earned or pending. Once you register for orientation, you will receive an email with instructions for scheduling this session.
- Review information on the Ohio State Marion orientation website: osumarion.osu.edu/future-students/orientation

3 Attend an On-Campus Orientation Session

- Receive your course schedule based on your course planning zoom session.
- Engage in a check-in on your Buckeye business, including financial aid and billing.
- Meet with members of our team who are ready to help support your success in and out of the classroom.
- Learn about opportunities that await you from student orientation leaders.
- Get your BuckID, tour areas of campus and more!

4 Classes Begin - Get Ready!

- Monday, January 4 - Fee payment deadline and deadline to waive student health insurance.
- Monday, January 11 - Classes start.
