

WHAT'S NEXT?

A guide for students completing New Student Orientation at The Ohio State University at Marion.

Access to Orientation is only available to students that have been admitted and paid the $100 acceptance fee.

Complete Online Components

Items become available now throughout May

- Complete "To Do List" items found on the right side of your Buckeye Link account. Some items are available now. Some may be added through May.
- Review content in Carmen Canvas (carmen.osu.edu). Important information and instructions will be sent to your Ohio State email account. Available starting April 21st.
- Complete the exit survey at the conclusion of the Carmen modules to let your Advisor know what limitations you have with your schedule, your goals, pending credits, etc.

Register for On-Campus Orientation

Available once you've completed step 1 - Orientations start June 14th, offered on select Wednesdays in June, July and early August

- A link to register will be located in the "admissions" section of your My Buckeye Link page. Select the earliest date you can attend for the most variety of course selection.

Attend an On-Campus Orientation Session

- Building on the information you learned in the Carmen modules, learn about the requirements for your intended major and more details about course planning.
- Engage in a one-on-one check-in on your Buckeye business, including financial aid, billing, and more.
- Meet with other offices that you were introduced to in Carmen, get your Buck ID, tour campus, and more.
- Schedule your classes! All of your required To Do List items must be complete in order to schedule classes. Otherwise, you will need a follow up appointment to schedule classes.

Welcome Day!

- Attend "Welcome Day" on Monday, August 21st, to kickoff your first semester at Ohio State Marion! Check your Buckeyemail throughout the summer for updates on this event.
